

WHOA MULE WHOA

Traditional

-----Verse 1-----

Saddled up my old grey mule,
took her down town Before I had time to strike up a trade,
a buzzard tied her down.

Ref. Whoa mule, whoa;
whoa mule I say I aint got time to kiss you now.
My mule just ran away

Jaybird died of whooping cough,
Bluebird died of colic Along came a toad with a fiddle on his back,
and all went to the frolic

Ref. Whoa mule, whoa;
whoa mule I say I aint got time to kiss you now.
My mule just ran away

Peter was a little boy,
Peter was not stout Peter got the whooping cough and Peter petered out

Ref. Whoa mule, whoa;
whoa mule I say I aint got time to kiss you now.
My mule just ran away

-----Verse 2-----

Johnson bought him an old gray mule, and called him Simon slick
He'd wall his eyes and switch his tail, um! how that mule could kick.

Ref. Whoa Mule Whoa, Whoa Mule I holler
Tie a knot in that old mules tail
And cram him in the collar.

Take him on down below the house, and hitch him in to plow
With a gee and a haw, its gee and haw, with a gee and a haw Whoa now.

Ref. Whoa Mule Whoa, whoa mule I said
Take your seat little Liza Jane
And hold tight to the sled.
