WINKIN' EYE

Traditional

Went to town the other night
Raised some cane and had to fight
Threw three rocks and had to run,
Wished I brought my gattlin gun.

Ref. Oh me, oh my, you'd better watch my winkin' eye
You'd better watch my winkin' eye
If you don't want no blackie eye.

Lazy gal in yonder town,
Weighs two hundred and forty pounds,
Looked at me and winked her eye,
When she turned around could hear her sigh.

Ref. Oh me, oh my, you'd better watch my winkin' eye
You'd better watch my winkin' eye
If you don't want no blackie eye.

Oh me, oh my, you'd better watch my winkin' eye
You'd better watch my winkin' eye
If you don't want no blackie eye.

Lazy gal in yonder town,
Weighs two hundred and forty pounds,
Looked at me and winked her eye,
When she turned around could hear her sigh.

Ref. Oh me, oh my, you'd better watch my winkin' eye
You'd better watch my winkin' eye
If you don't want no blackie eye.
